

CALL FOR IRWGS TEACHING ASSISTANTS FALL 2021

The Institute for Research on Women, Gender, and Sexuality at Columbia University announces its search for 2 Teaching Assistants for the Fall 2021 course WMST UN3125 Introduction to Sexuality Studies taught by Professor Jack Halberstam (Gender Studies and English and Comparative Literature).

Graduate students currently enrolled in a PhD program in any Arts and Sciences Department, who are within their funding years and will not be in their Dissertation Fellowship year starting in Fall 2021 are eligible to apply, with approval from their home department. Students beyond their funding years will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

Please note that Columbia TAs may not hold more than one TA position in any one semester and may not accept additional fellowship or departmental support during the term of the TA appointment. Appointments are subject to meeting appropriate course enrollment thresholds.

How to Apply

Candidates should send a letter of intent (including background, experience and fields of interest), an updated CV, and the name and contact information for one academic reference. Please forward all application materials to irwgs@columbia.edu, subject line "IRWGS Teaching Assistant Application) by or before 11:59pm on Friday, April 16, 2021.
